Planning a wedding and looking for a one-of-a-kind look for your flower girls or junior bridesmaids? Luxury children's label Stellina Couture has just launched e-boutique Stylista & Co, which gives you all the creative control over your little attendant's look.

Simply select from a range of 'blank canvas' gowns and tailor them to your occasion, choosing a fabric, colour and extra embellishments to suit your wedding theme and colour palette! These sweet looks are also ideal for christenings, communions and other special occasions, with sizes ranging from 3 months to size 16.

Start creating now at stylistandco.com.au. Or if you're in Sydney, pop down to The Bridal Bazaar at Darling Harbour on Thursday, October 1, for a first-hand look – visit thebridalbazaar.com.au.

For now, check out some of our favourite looks from the range – so many cute options!
